About

KAKADU

Kakadu, Australia's largest national park and a dual-listed UNESCO World Heritage site, is home to the world's oldest living Indigenous culture. For over 65,000 years, Aboriginal people have lived here, and they invite you to experience their rich heritage, breathtaking landscapes, and timeless stories.

3 hour drive or 1 hour flight from Darwin

Kakadu is easily accessible by car, with sealed roads leading the entire way. Alternatively, Kakadu Air offers direct charter flights from Darwin to both accommodation properties at competitive rates. Ask us for a quote!

Situated in the heart of Kakadu National Park, Cooinda Lodge is the perfect base to explore central and southern Kakadu including Nourlangie Rock Art Site, Maguk, Jim Jim Falls, Twin Falls, Moline Rock Hole, Motor Car Falls and Boulder Creek.

With its oasis style atmosphere, Cooinda Lodge offers two inviting shaded swimming pools, bistro-style dining, a bar, petrol station and a store that offers locally made crafts as well a wide range of essentials for touring.
