Ngurrungurrudjba (Yellow Water) Campground & Caravan Park

Situated in the heart of Kakadu National Park, Ngurrungurrudjba (Yellow Water) Campground and Caravan Park is the perfect base to explore central and southern Kakadu including Jim Jim Falls, Twin Falls, Gunlom Falls, Maguk Gorge, Moline Rock Hole, Motor Car Falls and Nourlangie Rock Art Site. It also has Warradjan Cultural Centre just 1km away.

The campground offers both powered and unpowered sites for caravans and campers, all located in shady, well-maintained grounds, with excellent amenity blocks.

Campers have access to the Cooinda Lodge resort facilities during their stay. You can relax by the lagoon swimming pools, enjoy al fresco dining at the Barra Bar and Bistro or eat in air-conditioned comfort at the newly renovated Mimi's Restaurant.

Warradjan Cultural Centre

Located a 1km stroll from Cooinda Lodge, the Warradjan Cultural Centre is the perfect place to immerse yourself in the local Bininj/ Mungguy culture.

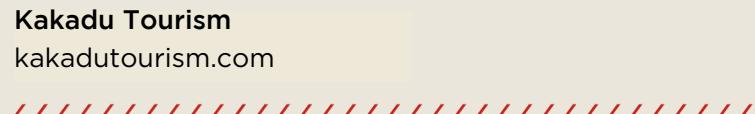

Developed by the traditional owners, the cultural centre has a variety of displays and artefacts to illustrate the local history and traditions of the area.

Warradjan is also a haven for local Indigenous artists to work on their painting and weaving as well as selling their pieces at the onsite gallery and gift shop.

Warradjan is the indigenous name for the pig nosed turtle and is shaped that way.
