The Ultimate Base to EXPLORE KAKADU

Proudly Indigenous Owned

About

Cooinda Lodge is situated on Murumburr Country in the heart of World Heritage Listed Kakadu National Park, just three hours' drive from Darwin.

With its oasis-style atmosphere, Cooinda Lodge has Kakadu's most extensive range of accommodation, from luxury villas to quality hotel rooms. The resort offers two shaded swimming pools, alfresco and indoor dining, fuel station, general store, the Warradjan Cultural Centre and extensive touring options including world-famous Yellow Water Cruises.

Experiences & Adventures

Tours

The renowned Yellow Water Cruises, Yellow Water Fishing and Kakadu Tourism Adventure Tours operate from Cooinda Lodge. Cooinda Lodge is also a departure point for other tours operating in Kakadu National Park. Please reach out to the relevant tour operator to confirm pick-up details.

Warradjan Cultural Centre, just 1.2km from Cooinda Lodge, is a community hub, cultural museum and art gallery central to the Bininj/Mungguy people of Kakadu National Park. Stroll through the museum and discover the rich local history and read stories of Traditional Owners growing up in Kakadu. Sit on Country with our elders and Bininj artists and learn traditional weaving techniques and admire the extensive collection of local artwork for sale.

Food and Beverage

Mimi's Restaurant & Barra Bar

Enjoy alfresco dining amongst the Barra Bar fairy lights or opt for a cooling, air conditioned table in Mimi's restaurant. The menu embodies native flavours and modern techniques, with bush-tucker inspired dishes, an extensive wine list, a distinctive NT gin and tonic selection, and native non-alcoholic cocktails.

The Smoking Croc

Cooinda's newest dining outlet, the Smoking Croc is your opportunity to relish the authentic flavours of Kakadu. Served out of the BBQ House on Barra lawns, smoked Top End staples are on the menu, including beef brisket, pork and barramundi.

Too Deadly Takeaway

The deadliest fish 'n' chips in Kakadu! Picnic on the Barra lawns by the pool and enjoy an easy, family-friendly takeaway meal.
