CAMPGROUND SITES

The Ngurrungurrudjba (Yellow Water) Campground & Caravan Park is the perfect place to base yourself for a Kakadu Adventure. The shady camping area has two excellent bathroom amenity blocks with hot showers and toilets, laundry facilities, a camp kitchen with a fridge, toaster, kettle, microwave and BBQ cook-tops. While our powered sites include potable water, there are also filtered water stations available, with access to all of Cooinda's resort-style facilities including Children's playground, jumping pillow and lagoon swimming pool.

Experiences & Adventures

Tours

The renowned Yellow Water Cruise, Yellow Water Fishing and Kakadu Tourism Adventure Tours operate from Cooina Lodge, which is also a departure point for other tours operating in Kakadu National Park. Please reach out to the relevant tour operator to confirm pick-up details.

Warradjan Cultural Centre, just 1.2km from Cooina Lodge, is a community hub, cultural museum and art gallery central to the Bininj/Mungguy people of Kakadu National Park. Stroll through the museum and discover the rich local history and read stories of Traditional Owners growing up in Kakadu. Sit on Country with our elders and Bininj artists and learn traditional weaving techniques and admire the extensive collection of local artwork for sale.

Food and Beverage

Mimis Restaurant & Barra Bar

Enjoy alfresco dining amongst the Barra Bar fairy lights or opt for a cooling, air conditioned table in Mimi's restaurant. The menu embodies native flavours and modern techniques, with bush-tucker inspired dishes, an extensive wine list, a distinctive NT gin and tonic selection, and native non-alcoholic cocktails.

The Smoking Croc

Cooina's newest dining outlet, the Smoking Croc is your opportunity to relish the authentic flavours of Kakadu. Served out of the BBQ House on the Barra lawns, smoked Top End staples are on the menu, beef brisket, pork and barramundi.

Too Deadly Takeaway

The deadliest fish 'n' chips in Kakadu! Picnic on the Barra lawns by the pool and enjoy an easy, family-friendly takeaway meal.

Barra Bar, The Smoking Croc and Too Deadly Takeaway are in operation during Dry Season only. Mimi's Restaurant is open for dining year-round.
